Application No: ST/0760/15/HFUL

Date of Issue: 27/10/2015

In pursuance of their powers under the above mentioned Acts, South Tyneside Council as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development:

PROPOSAL: Enlargement of front elevation dormer window.

LOCATION: 83 Beacon Glade, South Shields, NE34 7QU

In accordance with your application dated 27 July 2015

REASON(S) FOR REFUSAL:

- 1 The proposal by virtue of its excessive scale, massing, prominence and general unsympathetic appearance would be harmful to the visual amenity of the application dwelling and the street scene of Beacon Glade. As such it would not accord with South Tyneside Local Development Framework (LDF) Development Management Policy DM1 (criterion A).

Informatives

- 1 In dealing with this application the Council has implemented the requirements of the National Planning Policy Framework (paragraphs 186 & 187) to seek to approve applications for sustainable development where possible. However, the proposed development is contrary to the policies referred to in the reason(s) for refusal and it has not been possible to reach an agreed solution in this case.

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

1 Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission then you can appeal to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government in accordance with section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 within 12 weeks from the date of this decision notice.
- The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- Appeals can be made online using the Planning Inspectorate planning appeal service through Planning Portal at <http://www.planningportal.gov.uk/planning/appeals/online/makeanappeal>. You must use a Householder Appeal Form when making your appeal. Alternatively this form can be obtained from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN or by phoning their Customer Support Team on 0303 4445000. Please note that you must state the appeal form that you require.
- Please be aware that details of planning appeals are available on the internet and may include a copy of the original planning application form and relevant supporting documents supplied to ourselves, either by you, or your agent, together with the completed appeal form, and information that you submit to the Planning Inspectorate. Please ensure that you only provide information, including personal information belonging to you that you are happy will be made available to others in this way. If you supply personal information belonging to a third party please ensure you have their permission to do so. More information about data protection and privacy matters is available on the Planning Portal website.

PURCHASE NOTICES

- 2 If permission to develop land is refused, whether by South Tyneside Council as local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council, requiring the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
