Town and Country Planning Act 1990

Application No: ST/0011/23/HFUL
Date of Issue: 02/03/2023

In pursuance of their powers under the above mentioned Acts, South Tyneside Council as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development:

Proposal: Two storey rear extension over existing kitchen offshot - bathroom and shower room to first floor with balcony above. New side window to existing rear offshot.
Location: 5 Woodlands Terrace, South Shields, NE33 2ET

REASON(S) FOR REFUSAL:

1 The proposed development would, by virtue of its excessive scale, massing and close proximity to the ground floor side habitable kitchen and dining room windows and doors of this adjacent dwelling (no. 4 Woodlands Terrace), be detrimental to the amenities enjoyed by the occupiers of this adjacent property, particularly in terms of its overbearing impact and resultant overshadowing, reduced outlook and reduced day light impacts. As such, the proposed development would not accord with the adopted South Tyneside Local Development Framework Policy DM1 (B) or the associated design guidance held within Supplementary Planning Document 9: Householder Extensions.

NOTES TO APPLICANT:

For the avoidance of doubt this decision relates to the following plans and/or specifications:

Proposed Site/Roof Plan received 05/01/2023
Drg No.0777/5513/896 received 05/01/2023
Drg No.1 received 05/01/2023

1 In dealing with this application the Council has implemented the requirements of the National Planning Policy Framework to seek to approve applications for sustainable development where possible. However, the proposed development is contrary to the policies referred to in the reason(s) for refusal and it has not been possible to reach an agreed solution in this case.

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

1 Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

As this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice unless:

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice [reference no. if applicable], if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice; or

- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 12 weeks of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at https://www.gov.uk/appeal-householder-planning-decision

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

PURCHASE NOTICES

2 If permission to develop land is refused, whether by South Tyneside Council as local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council, requiring the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
