South Tyneside Council

NOTICE OF REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Contact Name and Address:

Application No: ST/0431/23/FUL
Date of Issue: 23/10/2023

In pursuance of their powers under the above mentioned Acts, South Tyneside Council as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development:

Proposal: Conversion of three bedroom mid terrace property to form Sui Generis 7 bed HMO en-suite for up to 8 persons in 7 households (7 singles, or 6 singles and 1 couple). Loft conversion and installation of 3no.roof windows to rear roof slope. Single storey extension to rear. Removal of existing chimney and rear projection.

Location: 78 Hedworth Lane, Boldon Colliery, NE35 9HZ

REASON(S) FOR REFUSAL:

1 The Local Planning Authority considers that the proposed use would, due to incongruous overdevelopment/level of occupation, lead to adverse impacts upon residential amenity and the character and nature of the locality (and where single household family housing is the predominant use) and that it fails to provide any car parking to serve it (being wholly reliant on on-street parking and where there is already a high demand for on-street parking), adversely affecting parking conditions in the area, contrary to Policy DM4 (Intensive Housing Uses) of the South Tyneside Local Development Framework.

NOTES TO APPLICANT:

For the avoidance of doubt this decision relates to the following plans and/or specifications:

Drg No. HL1/25/05/23 received 05/10/2023
Drg No. HL2/25/05/23 received 05/10/2023
Drg No HL3/25/05/23 received 05/10/2023
Drg No HL4/25/05/23 received 05/10/2023

1 In accordance with Article 35(2) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015, the Local Planning Authority has, without prejudice to a fair and objective assessment of the proposals, issues raised and representations received, sought to work with the applicant in a positive and proactive manner with the objective of delivering high quality sustainable development to improve the economic, social and environmental conditions of the area in accordance with the NPPF.

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

1 Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice but if the local planning authority's decision was to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice unless:

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice [reference no. if applicable], if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice; or

- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months, or 12 weeks in the case of a minor commercial appeal, of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.

PURCHASE NOTICES

2 If permission to develop land is refused, whether by South Tyneside Council as local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council, requiring the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
