How fast do people drive through Monkton Village?

Most vehicles exceed the 20mph speed limit

52% of journeys recorded on Monkton Lane in the middle of the village between 4th and 10th June 2024 were recorded at 21mph or higher.

In one week 58 vehicles were recorded driving faster than 30mph and 3 exceeded 40mph.

Journeys recorded on Monkton Lane in the middle of the village between 4th and 10th June 2024

A car travelling at 20mph takes 12 metres to stop so can avoid a child running out three car-lengths in front of it.

A car travelling at 30mph needs 23 metres to stop so would hit a child running out three car-lengths in front of it.

A pedestrian hit by a car at 30mph has a 1 in 5 chance of being killed.

Monkton Village Traffic Management Working Group

- Traffic survey carried out in June 2024 by South Tyneside Council using Metro Count Traffic Executive at 3 points on Monkton Lane in the village.
- Accident data from road safety charity Brake https://www.brake.org.uk/

How many vehicles drive through Monkton Village?

37,898 per week

Weekly total number of journeys recorded between 20th and 26th June 2024
on Monkton Lane at the east end of the village.

Up to 6,254 per day

Peak daily total number of journeys recorded on Thursday 20th June 2024
on Monkton Lane at the east end of the village.

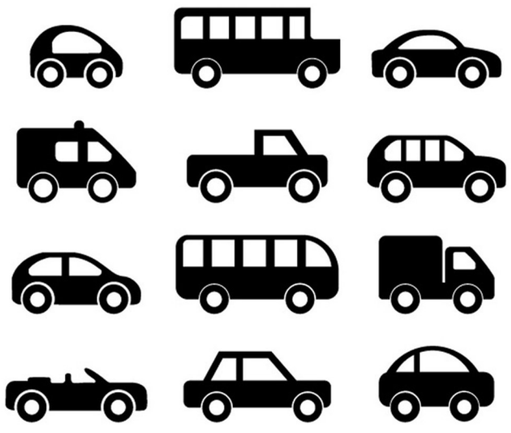

When is it busiest?

7:30 to 9:30am and 3:00 to 6:00pm

Weekday rush-hours recorded in June 2024 at 3 different points on Monkton Lane, at the east and west ends and the middle of the village.

Up to 14 vehicles every minute

Peak weekday flowrate recorded between 8:15am and 8:30am, Thursday 20th June 2024
on Monkton Lane at the east end of the village.

Most of these journeys are by non-residents choosing to use Monkton Village as their route between Hebburn and Jarrow or vice versa.

Monkton Village Traffic Management Working Group

- Traffic survey carried out in June 2024 by South Tyneside Council using Metro Count Traffic Executive at 3 points on Monkton Lane in the village.