

SHAFTESBURY AVENUE

This is an aerial photograph of a street scene. A red rectangle highlights a building with a grey roof and an adjacent parking lot with yellow markings. The street, labeled 'SHAFTESBURY AVENUE', runs vertically through the center. White arrows indicate traffic flow in both directions. Various cars are parked and driving on the street. To the right is a large blue-roofed building with a parking lot, and to the bottom right is a large empty parking lot with yellow lines. The top left shows a large building with a brown tiled roof.
