Application No: 260209

Date of Issue: 21/07/2026

In pursuance of their powers under the above mentioned Acts, South Tyneside Council as Local Planning Authority REFUSE planning permission for the following development:

Proposal: Change of use from dwelling (Use Class C3) to 6 bed, 6 person House in Multiple Occupation [HMO] (Use Class C4) and insertion of rooflights
Location: 161 Wansbeck Road, Jarrow, NE32 5SR

REASON(S) FOR REFUSAL:

- 1 The Local Planning Authority considers that the proposed change of use to a House in Multiple Occupation would, as a consequence of the very close proximity of the application property to neighbouring dwellings, the significantly greater intensity of use of the property that would arise both internally and in terms of comings and goings of occupiers/visitors and the location of the application property within a settled residential area of family housing, result in significant adverse impacts on the character of the area and upon the residential amenity of existing nearby occupiers. All of the above harm would be contrary to Policy DM1 of the South Tyneside Local Development Framework, Policy 16 of the emerging South Tyneside Local Plan and Paragraph 135(f) of the NPPF.

NOTES TO APPLICANT:

In accordance with Article 35(2) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015, the Local Planning Authority has, without prejudice to a fair and objective assessment of the proposals, issues raised and representations received, sought to work with the applicant in a positive and proactive manner with the objective of delivering high quality sustainable development to improve the economic, social and environmental conditions of the area in accordance with the NPPF (National Planning Policy Framework).

NOTES

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

1 Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice but if the local planning authority's decision was to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice unless:

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice [reference no. if applicable], if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice; or
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months, or 12 weeks in the case of a minor commercial appeal, of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals should be made online via Appeal a planning decision. If someone does not have access to the internet and needs help completing the appeal digitally, they should contact the Planning Inspectorate customer service team on 0303 444 5000 who will provide details of support options available.

Before making an appeal, you may find it helpful to review guidance and watch a video explaining the appeals process at Make an appeal to the Planning Inspectorate and associated guidance.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.

PURCHASE NOTICES

- 2 If permission to develop land is refused, whether by South Tyneside Council as local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council, requiring the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
